1 Introduction

1.1 Background

Discuss the broader context of your research, its significance, and its contribution to your field. [1].

1.2 Problem Statement

Define the specific problem or challenge your thesis addresses.

1.3 Research Objectives

List the objectives or aims of your research.

- Objective 1
- Objective 2
 - Sub-objective 1
 - Sub-objective 2
 - Sub-objective 3

2 Literature Overview

Review the existing literature related to your research topic, highlighting how your work will contribute to the existing knowledge base.

3 Method

Explain the methods and approaches you are going to use in your research. A flowchart can help illustrate your method.

4 Current Work and Initial Results

Present the findings of your research. Use figures, tables, and charts as needed to illustrate your results.

Table 1: Table Caption

Cell1	Cell2	Cell3
Cell4	Cell5	Cell6
Cell7	Cell8	Cell9

5 Work Plan and Time Table

The Work Plan and Time Table provide a structured outline and schedule for the project, detailing tasks, milestones, and their respective timelines.

Table 2: Work plan

Task	Start Date	End Date	Duration
Task 1	01/01/2024	01/01/2025	1 year
Task 2	01/01/2025	01/01/2026	1 year
Task 3	01/01/2026	01/01/2027	1 year
