Introduction

Amazing introductory ideas that provide unique insight into your field of interest and “wows” your professor—formatted based on Kate L. Turabian’s A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations (9th edition).

Chapter 1

A First Chapter

An Interesting Section

Great thoughts that further your argument. This includes lots of strong evidence presented throughout several paragraphs, each accompanied by necessary citations.

Here is a block quotation—a passage from a text you found insightful and wanted to share with others. Maybe it is from a journal article, website, or book. Irrespective, it should support the argument being made.<sup>1</sup>

Maybe a sentence or two that bring the argument and evidence together.<sup>2</sup>

Another Insightful Section

More ideas that really make this a great paper. Maybe a footnote or two.<sup>3</sup>

---

1. A citation for the quoted material.

2. Author Name, Title of Book (Location: Publisher, 2018), 34.

3. Some peripheral thoughts that belong in a note.

Chapter 2

Another Great Chapter

Conclusion

At this point, you've changed everything (including your marks!). Time to wrap up!
